MESSAGE

Children with disabilities and their families constantly experience barriers to the enjoyment of their basic human rights and to their inclusion in society. Their abilities are overlooked, their capacities are underestimated and their needs are given low priority. Yet, the barriers they face are more frequently as a result of the environment in which they live than as a result of their impairment.

HISTORY

Kalyani Life Institute first took shape as a charitable organization, fulfilling categorical needs to individuals with Autism. It was founded with concepts and agony of some parents of five autistic, Mentally Retarded and Cerebral Palsy children.

GROWTH TRAJECTORY

Kalyani life institute has started functioning since early part of 2010 with five special children and their parents. One parent has donated a piece of land and we built a temporary structure over it. In the year of 2014 we have got accommodation in a Government school premises. And our beneficiaries count multiplied to triple. We have been registered to the National Trust in the year of 2016. We have started school in our own rented premises in 2016. We have started Disha for early intervention and Vikaas for Day care school. Our children count touched 62. We have started Niramaya, a reimbursement scheme under Oriental Insurance. Baby count reaches to 90. We have started Sahayogi scheme for mother's awareness. 50 more parents came and trained. We have organised a computer center for differently abled babies with 41 computers donated by DHL Blue Dart. We have already got a piece of land from Municipality and we are developing it for a Vocational Training Center.

CATCH LINE

Educate every child about life-skills For preparing him/her as a Money-earning adult.

VIEWS

All children are valuable children are and they all Must deserve the opportunity to be fully Included in our society. With heartfelt desire we will try to make a platform for future of these God-gifted children with our love and hope.

WE ARE FOR

Toddlers who cannot feel comfortable with the Elementary School Educational System.

WE BELIEVE AND PROCLAIM THAT

- Every child has a fundamental right to education, and must be given the opportunity to achieve and maintain an acceptable level of learning.
- Every child has unique characteristics, interests, abilities and learning needs.
- Education systems should be designed and educational programmes implemented to take into account the wide diversity of these characteristics and needs.
- Those who have special educational needs must have access to regular schools which should accommodate them within a child-centred pedagogy capable of meeting these needs.
- Regular schools with this inclusive orientation are the most effective means of combating discriminatory attitudes, creating welcoming communities, building an inclusive society and achieving education for all; moreover, they provide an effective education to the majority of children and improve the efficiency and ultimately the cost-effectiveness of the entire education system. Society's lack of knowledge, misinformation and negative attitudes lead directly to the exclusion of disabled girls and boys from education. Furthermore, where disabled children's capacities, rights and needs are constantly underestimated, they are likely to develop low self-esteem and negative attitudes about themselves and their abilities.

In all societies, there is a need to raise awareness that each child is unique and different, and that disabled children have the same rights, needs and aspirations as all children. Awareness work is important at all levels in society – child, family, community – to counteract fear, misunderstanding and negative attitudes. The most effective way to do this is through participation by disabled people and children.

The impact of negative attitudes is also evident at policy level, in legislation, and in school practice. Education officials, teachers and NGOs need to develop a sound understanding of disability as a social challenge – it is about lack of opportunities for disabled children to develop their full potential and participate in society – rather than seeing disabled children as children who 'lack' some skills or abilities. Only when this concept is grasped will individuals and organisations involved in education recognise their responsibility for helping to break the cycle of negative attitudes and segregation.

We like this can make a significant difference but, in the long term, negative attitudes are a reflection of society's values and it is only when disabled people are empowered through education to take part in society on an equal basis as teachers, lawyers, architects, etc, that society's attitudes will become more positive.

VISION

Each student is an individual with special interests and the ability to learn and experience success. Both academic growth and social maturity go hand in hand to create individuals who are well-rounded, contributing members of society.

MISSION

We champion the rights and interests of all people with Autism, Aspergers, Dyslexia, and aim to provide individuals with autism and their families with help., support and services that they can access, trust and rely upon and which can make a positive difference to their lives.

PROBLEM STATEMENT

Society's lack of knowledge, misinformation and negative attitudes lead directly to the exclusion of autistic girls and boys from education. Furthermore, where autistic children's capacities, rights and needs are constantly underestimated, they are likely to develop low self-esteem and negative attitudes about themselves and their abilities.

In all societies, there is a need to raise awareness that each child is unique and different, and that disabled children have the same rights, needs and aspirations as all children. Awareness work is important at all levels in society – child, family, community – to counteract fear, misunderstanding and negative attitudes. The most effective way to do this is through participation by disabled people and children.

BROAD SPECTRUM OF ACTIVITIES

We like this can make a significant difference but, in the long term, negative attitudes are a reflection of society's values and it is only when disabled people are empowered through education to take part in society on an equal basis that society's attitudes will become more positive.

Person with autism undergo special education, dance and music therapy, sensory activities, occupational therapy, applied behavior analysis, physiotherapy and speech therapy by trained therapists and pathologists and educators. Distinguished board members including physicians, mentors and psychologists periodically assess the physiological, educational and psychological development of the persons with disabilities.

Apart from running a regular school for these differently abled children, this organization does its level best to provide support for social security, mental trauma and trivial family issues that are common to these ill-fated families.

Therefore this organization acts as a welfare family where parents of these children with disabilities can find a mental shelter. Together, we devote ourselves to the welfare of the differently abled with an exclusive and effective center for facilitating the Divyangjan of the society. We help in empowering them by maintaining an interactive data bank providing information so as to get equal opportunities of employment, educational skills, competence building, organizing health check-up camps and also to provide the necessary equipment for them so that they should earn their livelihood and be a part of the society with dignity.
